

Huna Magic Plus

John B. Bainbridge

Researcher and world traveler John Bainbridge's focus on esoterica led him to begin making use of "Huna," Max Freedom Long's reconstructed Kahuna "Secret Science" of Ancient Hawaii.

To successfully use the magic of Huna, a person must resolve any complexes which interfere with clear communication with his/her own high self. In carrying forward his Huna practice, John learned of "Vector," a newly discovered, personal problem solving technique which does exactly that—resolves complexes.

While developing his use of this secret within the secret, and to broaden his perspective and familiarize himself with some of the world's inspirational mystery sites, John journeyed to Luxor and the pyramids in Egypt. He visited the pyramids in Yucatan. He has been to Machu Picchu, Delphi, Glastonbury, Stonehenge, and has traveled to several Polynesian islands. In Hawaii he conducted additional research on Huna.

John has been teaching this unique secret within the secret to his clients since 1980. Now it is available in Huna Magic Plus.

"In his book, Huna Magic Plus, John Bainbridge has done a superb job of condensing and making graphic the history and contemporary impact of the ancient 'Huna Secret.' Of special interest is his inclusion of the unique Vector method of personal problem resolution."
